Gourmet Safari to Byron Bay – 20 – 25 October 2019

SAMPLE ITINERARY

Byron Bay and its lush hinterland is literally heaven on earth; the beaches are long and pristine, the rainforest and farmland is magnificent - the rich volcanic soil perfect for growing a huge range of fruit and vegetables...which makes it a great place to explore, meet some inspiring locals and taste some of the best the region has to offer.

We stay in luxurious accommodation at the glamorous resort right on Belongil Beach – Elements of Byron – where you can start the day with a long beach walk, a swim or yoga on the headland overlooking the stretch of sand. Each day is filled with simply perfect moments... you'll meet people who have created lush gardens and farms from nothing, people who grow exceptional produce including a visit to a true Garden of Eden, a couple who created their own rainforest and make some very cool gin from the berries they grow; we meet many talented chefs and visit some of the top restaurants and a great local produce market... plus in 2019 we are delighted to announce we have a special class with long term local - the culinary legend Belinda Jeffery who will share some of her favourite recipes with us ...as well, there's time for you to unwind, enjoy a spa treatment, laze by a choice of 2 exceptional pools, walk along the beach at our doorstep or the quiet stillness of the rainforest. We want to give you a real taste of one of our favourite places.

Host: Maeve O'Meara

Day 1 – Sunday 20 October (L)

We will pick you up in a luxurious coach at Coolangatta Airport at 11.30 am. This gives enough time for flights from major capitals. Please advise Suzy of which flight you're due in on. Wear or bring shoes that you can comfortably walk around a farm in.

We drive to our dear friends Amy Chanta and Palisa Anderson at their beautiful Boon Luck Farm where they grow many vegetables and herbs used in their Chat Thai restaurants and Boon Luck Cafe. We'll explore the farm and then sit down for a lunch with the lowest food miles on the planet - all fresh from the earth.

Dessert is literally over the fence with neighbour John Piccone who has created a magical Garden of Eden with a huge orchard full of tropical fruit - you'll see and try varieties that have yet to be seen commercially... truly a dream to walk and taste and enjoy.

Late afternoon we drive to our beautiful accommodation at Elements of Byron, with its huge swimming pool, cafe and restaurant, set right on Belongil Beach.

Day 2 – Monday 21 October (BLD)

Optional Yoga to start the day as the sun rises over the perfect beach.

Enjoy a relaxed breakfast before heading out for the day.

We'll drive to the famous lighthouse, the most easterly point of Australia and have a good walk to get up an appetite for later.

The Farm at Byron Bay is well known for its exceptional produce and will be the subject of an upcoming book. Founders Emma and Tim Lane will give us a tour followed by lunch at Three Blue Ducks.

We then spend the afternoon with a charming family who created their own rainforest and have a very cool gin distillery.

Dinner is a specially prepared feast in the cool arts precinct of Byron with the very talented dynamo Sarah Swan (co author of the Seafood Handbook and brilliant local chef) at 100 Mile Table.

Day 3 - Tuesday 22 October (BL)

Yoga - if you like. Another relaxed breakfast.

Mid-morning we'll head to the Tweed Art Gallery for a guided tour.

Lunch today is at the very glamorous Paper Daisy in Halcyon House, Cabarita Beach.

After lunch we'll have a private tour of sugarcane farm and the enterprising Husk Distillery (rum makers).

The evening is yours... poolside champagne, a moonlit beach walk.

Day 4 – Wednesday 23 October (BL)

Yoga and breakfast.

We walk amongst the area's lovely coffee plantation Zentveld's coffee at Newrybar before enjoying a great cup of coffee then head to visit the inspiring Anthony Hotson at his farm where he harvests native Australian produce from his lush rainforest – this was a real highlight for our 2018 group and many ordered his lovely produce as unique truly Australian Christmas gifts.

We're beachside for lunch at Lennox Head at Shelter Restaurant which always creates a special banquet with many signature dishes for us, starting with a glass of bubbles.

After lunch we head to Federal in the green hinterland for a cooking demonstration with long term local and culinary legend, Belinda Jeffery, who will share some of her favourite recipes with us.

Free evening or pop on the shuttle into Byron.

Day 5 - Thursday 24 October (BD)

Breakfast and early departure to the produce markets at Byron which are full of the best produce of the area and really give you a feel for the rich vibrancy of the place.

We'll then go and explore the pretty village of Bangalow and its shops and cafes (optional - you may prefer a massage or a siesta). Return to Elements. Spa treatments or free afternoon.

Our final night dinner is at Town Restaurant in Bangalow.
