

Gourmet Safari to New Zealand
Friday 28th February – Thursday 6th March 2025
SAMPLE Itinerary

Day 1 - Friday – 28th February

Meet you at the airport in Queenstown early afternoon (Virgin arrives from Sydney 2.30pm/ Air NZ 2.30pm)

We will do a group transfer to the hotel (approx 3pm), but if you do arrive early (or later), the good news is that the airport is very close to the hotel so grab a taxi.

Check in and at 5pm we will enjoy a glass of the region's best wine in the Hilton Hotel's famous Pinot Pit, situated right on Lake Wakatipu. We'll enjoy a snack (you find you're a bit hungry due to time change) then let you settle into rooms.

7pm meet for dinner in the hotel's restaurant, Wakatipu Grill. Drink, snack, dinner

Day 2 - Saturday – 1st March

Breakfast at the hotel and then a visit to the best situated market in the world - the Remarkables Markets with the dramatic range as a backdrop - where we will explore the stalls of local food and have a chat with locals.

We'll take our finds back to the hotel and then head to lunch at the acclaimed Amisfield winery where you'll enjoy 4 great courses with matched wines...all in the private dining room.

Free evening to relax (or you may want to take the water taxi into Queenstown to explore). Breakfast, lunch

Day 3 - Sunday – 2nd March

Breakfast at our hotel and then we travel up over the Crown Range to Lake Wanaka and a private boat tour to Moa Wahu Island which is a wildlife sanctuary where the endangered buff weka birds roam free. There are strict limits on the number of visitors and it's a real joy to climb the track to the secret lake at the top of the island and turn in every direction to find wilderness and silence. It's pure 360-degree beauty.

Late lunch at brilliant local restaurant Paloma with our chef friend James Stapley.

Free evening for you to enjoy the spa and steam room. Breakfast, morning tea, lunch

Day 4 – Monday – 3rd March

Breakfast at our hotel before we board the water taxi into Queenstown - one of the most spectacular trips as you travel across the lake surrounded by mountain peaks.

We meet a charming greenstone carver and learn the significance of pounamu – the carved greenstone (Sam Neill often seen wearing his around his neck). Plus, we explore some Kiwi natural beauty products through a morning with the founder of Linden Leaves, Brigit Blair who is flying in especially for our group. Her company makes the most superb range of products including a divine rose oil.

We then visit The Romer Gallery to meet Nadine and Stephan Romer – he's the foremost photographer in New Zealand and hearing him talk about how he captures the essence of landscape is wonderful.

After a light lunch we tour the 3 galleries that make up Art Bay – the biggest gallery in Queenstown. Fascinating and with a glass of bubbles.

The rest of the afternoon is yours for shopping in some of Queenstown's boutiques, or taking the cable car up the mountain to enjoy the luge (it's fun!), a walk through the stunning Botanical Gardens - the path around the lake with tall pines all around is lovely. Or take a trip on the TSS Earnslaw up the lake past the two soaring mountains Walter Peak and Cecil Peak.

We'll enjoy dinner this evening in Queenstown Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Day 5 - Tuesday – 4th March

Breakfast in the hotel then we are out to explore. We visit the acclaimed Chantecler Gardens for a guided tour with creator Mike Henry who dreamed of designing the perfect garden since he was 8 years old. What he has made is stunning. We will pop into a nearby orchard for fruit ice-cream and coffee.

We then drive to a winery and meet up with our dear chef friend James Stapley who is creating a special lunch just for us using the best local produce. James' restaurant Kika is world class - in fact it's on the World's 50 Best Discovery list. Free evening. Breakfast, lunch, tastings

Day 6 - Wednesday – 5th March

Breakfast at the hotel. Mid-morning we'll depart for a visit to a farm producing some of the best eggs in the area. Followed by a cooking demonstration and lunch. This is owned by Nadia Lim - one New Zealand's top TV chef/ood writers.

We'll have some time for a walk in pretty Arrowtown with its historic gold diggings, before a movie in the charming little jewel box cinema Dorothy Browns...then to an Italian feast at Aosta just downstairs in the private room which feels like stepping back in time. Breakfast, lunch, dinner

Day 7 – Thursday – 6th March

Breakfast at hotel and check out. Group transfer at 12 noon. Breakfast
